This Week

Monday 20th January 2014

Reminder: Dropping food off at school during the day for students is not permitted. The school provides a canteen service that the students can use or they can bring a packed lunch from home with them when they are coming to school in the morning. Food brought in during the day will not be passed on to the students. If you have any questions about this, please see the relevant Pastoral Coordinator responsible for your child.

Friday

2.30-4.30pm: UK University Fair to be organised for Year 10, 11 and 12 students on campus in Room 218.

All

Wednesday 29th January:

Chinese New Year Celebration Day. There will be an assembly for all students at 8.30am, followed by a range of different activities across the primary and secondary schools. Children may come to school on that day in school uniform OR Chinese costume/Chinese National dress only. Please note that there are no CCAs running on this day. Students should be collected from school at the end of the normal school day.

Thursday 30th January-Friday 7th February:

Half-Term Holiday for all.

Upcoming Events

Wednesday 29th January: Chinese New Year Celebration Day. There will be an assembly for all students at 8.30am, followed by a range of different activities across the primary and secondary schools. Children may come to school on that day in school uniform OR Chinese costume/Chinese National dress only. Please note that there are no CCAs running on this day. Students should be collected from school at the end of the normal school day.

Thursday 30th January-Friday 7th February: Half-Term Holiday for all.

General Notices and Information

Reminder: Dropping food off at school during the day for students is not permitted. The school provides a canteen service that the students can use or they can bring a packed lunch from home with them when they are coming to school in the morning. Food brought in during the day will not be passed on to the students. If you have any questions about this, please see the relevant Pastoral Coordinator responsible for your child.
Chinese New Year

School will close on the 30th January 2014 for Chinese New Year. School will resume on the 10th February 2014.

Chinese New Year Open House for Sri Tenby Primary School.

Kindly note that this Open House for our school will now be on the 29th January 2014 and not on the 13th February 2014 as planned. This change is because we want to be in line with the whole school celebration for Chinese New Year.

The program for the day will be as follows:

- 8.30 am
  - School Assembly – students only

- 9.30 am – 11.00am
  - Activities for the students.

- 12.00 pm – 1.10 pm
  - Pot-Luck lunch in the Sri Tenby Primary School block.

- 1.20 pm – 2.20 pm
  - Back to Class.

- 2.20 pm
  - School Dismissal. There will be no CCAs.

Students can wear school uniform or Chinese Traditional Costumes on that day.

CCAs Schedule.

Primary Wushu will starts in February 2014. All other CCAs will be run as scheduled.

Letter from the Principal.

We have circulated the Principal’s letter to all the students last week. Kindly contact the office if you have not received a copy of the letter.

UPSR Program and Celik Minda Program

Both programs will commence after Chinese New Year. Watch out for further information.

Photography for Alice in Wonderland

Additional photographs for the school concert can be viewed and purchased through this link

https://plus.google.com/photos/102059485612346420370/albums/5955883214519378929

Kindly deal directly with Mr Ridzuan regarding this matter.