IGCSE Additional Mathematics

Subject Content

- The Year 10 and 11 Mathematics course at Tenby International School, Penang is designed as a two year course leading to the IGCSE examination at age 16-plus.
- The text book recommended for use at Tenby School is the IGCSE Additional Mathematics by Hugh Morrison, Alison Hughes, Anne Hunt and Mairead Tallon. The publisher is Hodder Murray and can be accessed at www.hoddereducation.com. This book covers most of the syllabus requirements for the IGCSE Additional Mathematics.
- There are three sections dealing with PURE MATHEMATICS, MECHANICS and lastly STATISTICS AND PROBABILITY. Each section has adequate exercises and examples.
- Cambridge IGCSE Additional Mathematics is made up of the following examination papers.

PAPER 1

CODE 0606/01

TIME: 2 HOURS

This paper contains 11 questions and answers are to be written on the prescribed answer scripts. Graph papers are provided. The total mark is 80. Electronic calculators (non-programmable) should be used.

PAPER 2

CODE 0606/02

TIME: 2 HOURS

This paper contains 12 questions, answers are to be written on the prescribed answer scripts. Graph papers are provided. The total mark is 80. Electronic calculators (non-programmable) should be used.

School Assessment

Students undergo a variety of assessment tasks each term. These include quizzes, unit tests, oral tests, classroom participation, classwork, homework and aptitude tests.
Formal assessment
The formal assessment for each course is set by the Examinations Boards. Students are informed at the beginning of their course the nature and type of assessment that they will undergo.

Standard Texts
Cambridge IGCSE Additional Mathematics by Hodder Murray.
Authors: Hugh Morrison, Alison Hughes, Anne Hunt and Mairead Tallon.